

Story

The Terra Corsa vineyards are located on the East coast of Corsica, between the Thyrrenian sea and the mountains and have a long tradition of excellence. This island of contrasts and passions, was very early revealed as a privileged wine growing area.

In the second century BC., the Phoceans, sailing from Greece settled in Alalia (today Aléria) on the Eastern coast, and introduced the culture of the vine. The birth date of a beautiful and long history from antiquity to our days, history that will generate a great tradition of excellence in wine making.

Grape varieties

85% Niellucciu, 15% Grenache

Niellucciu: This black grape is the twin brother of “Sangiovese” (grown in the Chianti region), and takes its names from “Niellu” which in Corsican means black, dark.

Terroir

Clay and limestone Pianiccia plateau

Winemaking

Vinified in stainless steel vats at a low temperature in order to retain all of the freshness of the fruit.

Tasting notes

This elegant and fresh wine is pink in colour with salmon tints and almost silvery shades.

On the nose, the wine is full of aromas of redcurrants and pomegranate and a subtle veil of floral notes.

The same aromas are apparent on the palate. This wine is both smooth and fresh.

Food pairing suggestions

To be enjoyed either on its own as an aperitif or with a starter, red pepper salad, stuffed vegetables or goat's cheese.

Serve chilled 10/12°
